Foreword

On the banks of Spokane River,
'Neath the wise and ancient mountains,
Stands an Indian, tall and bronzed,
Young and strong and full of hope.
As he gazes, one might wonder
If he dreams of days gone by
When his brothers had dominion
Over this, his native land.

Soon came white men through the forests,
Moving West to seek their quest,
Blazing trails and crossing rivers
Ending thus the red man's peace.

Traders seeking furs and fortune
Set up posts along the way
That were destined to be cities,
Charm and spirit unsurpassed.
Passing years brought friendly missions
With their message, "God is love."
Striving to impress the savage
With the ways of white man's life.

Purple mountain majesties
Now look down on amber grain,
Swirling falls that toss and tumble,
Meadows lush with golden fruit.
Eighth great wonder of the world,
Concrete giant Coulee Dam,
Provides the needed irrigation,
Changes sage to golden wheat.
Warm Chinook winds gently murmur
Thru the cedar, fir, and pine,
Potential homes and stores and factories,
Backbone of the great Northwest.

Faculty

Everyone likes to think that the job he is doing is important. Sometimes a student wonders whether he is spending enthusiastic years to the best advantage by finishing high school.

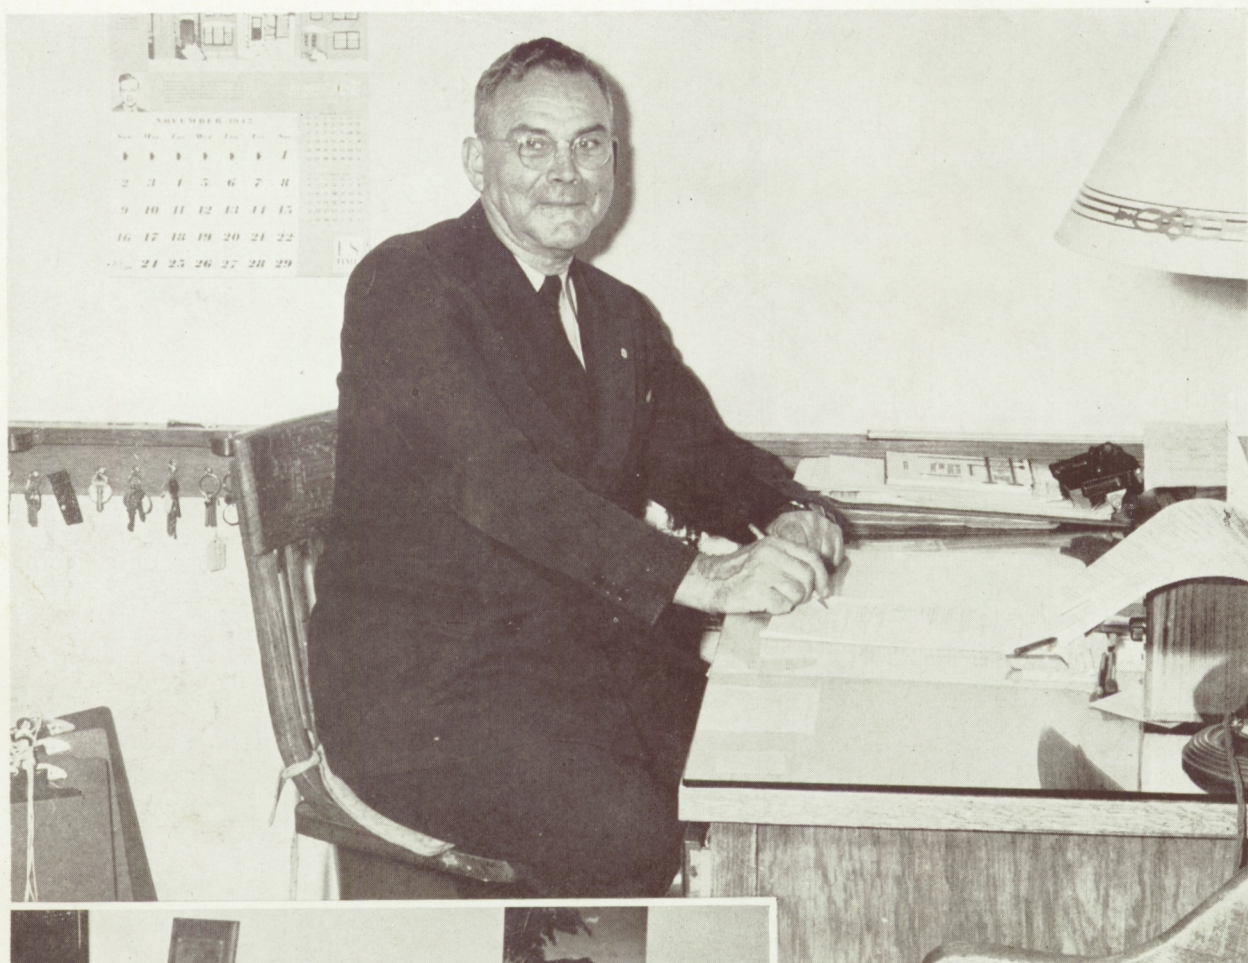

All the evidence proves that he will hold better positions and earn more money through his lifetime if he sticks to his high school course. That's the selfish side.

But our nation has a comparable interest in each one of you. America's chances of survival are better whenever a student moves over into the "upper one-fourth" in educational status.

America is a democracy and each vote counts once, but the number of voters who didn't reach sixth-grade education equals the population of 29 states. Sixty percent of American voters have not had a year of high school. They couldn't have had more than a smattering of history, civics, economics, and government. LESS THAN 25 PERCENT of the American electorate have gone through high school!

So America says to each one of you, "Stick to your educational guns! We shall expect better judgement and better accomplishment from you than from the less favored three-quarters."

Girls'

The Girls' League of North Central, consisting of all girls enrolled in the school, was organized in 1918 by Miss Jessie Gibson. Miss Conah Mac Ellis and Miss Helen Cleveland are the advisers.

Its purpose is expressed by the emblem: Honor, represented by an American flag; service, by the head of a young girl; and loyalty, by the Red Cross flag.

Department heads, committee chairmen, and floor chairmen of the room representatives make up a Central Council, the governing body of the League. The Council is presided over by the League officers.

League

To be on the Girls' League honor roll, a girl must have grades of C or better and have earned ten League points by serving in one of the departments. A bronze pin is awarded for two semesters of service, a silver pin for four, a gold pin for six, and gold pin with a ruby setting for eight semesters. These pins are awarded each semester at a special girls' convocation.

A group of senior girls act as counsellors for the new students. Older girls also act as "big cousins" on the first day of the semester and assist newcomers in finding their classes.

Choir, Three Fives, Orchestra

The Choir, Three Fives, and Orchestra, all under the able baton of W. Stanley Taft, have again this year carried on the tradition of fine music that has become so much a part of the North Central school scene.

Boasting 56 members, the Choir, with one of the largest enrollments in recent years was one of the most active and enjoyable entertainment groups during the year. A few of their many activities during the year included singing in the Operetta, taking part in a Town Meeting, and participating in the Easter convocation, Mr.

Carriker's convocation, the High School Choir contest, Greater Spokane Music Festival, Inter-High School Music Festival, and the Baccalaureate services.

The 21 members of the orchestra were also active during the year, participating in the Operetta, Senior Class Play, the Inter-High School Music Festival, and Baccalaureate and Commencement services.

Pep Band

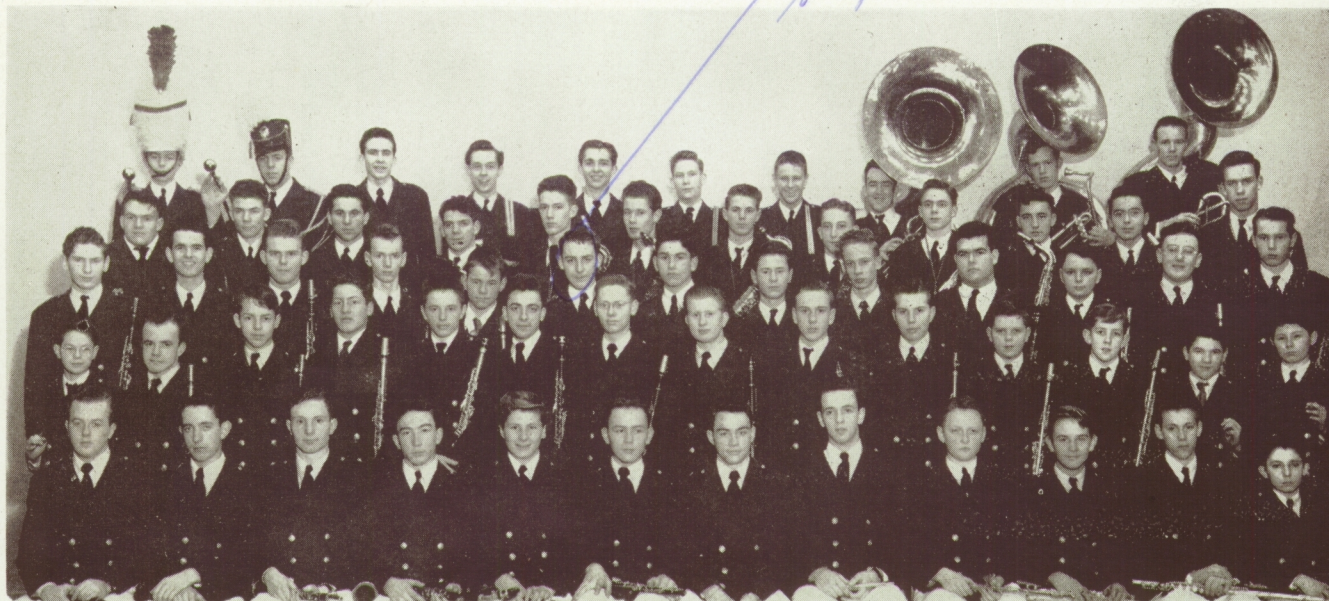

Composed of 20 capable musicians, the Pep Band, always an excellent entertainment group, participated in many school events and extra-curricular activities during the fall and spring semesters.

Under the student leadership of Jim Worley with Lowell C. Bradford as adviser, they played at the Merry-Go-Round football rally, and the Fox-Chronicle rally at the Fox theater. As a service to the community the group played for the dedication of the new North Hill Fire Station.

They also played for the basketball games and at all of the pre-game football and basketball pep cons.

Appearing with the concert and full bands in the pay convocation Jan. 21, the Pep Band featured W. Stanley Taft, Dorothy Powell, and Jack Coshaw as vocal soloists. George Swedberg, Jim Worley, Dick Hubbard, Bob Anderson, and Dick Eppley appeared as incidental soloists.

During the spring semester, the Pep Band formed the nucleus of the Doll Shop orchestra and prepared over 45 numbers for this musical show. They also appeared at intermission time during the forty-sixth annual formal concert, April 14, in a program of popular music. Both vocal and instrumental soloists were presented as a feature of the program.

N. C.

Maintaining an enrollment of 138 boys last fall and spring enrollment of 130, the concert band participated in many events of the school year.

Beginning the fall season with its presentation of "Minstrel Jubilee" with the Red Feathers and Color Girls in the half-time stunt at the Merry-Go-Round game and participating in all of the football games and in the pre-game ceremonies at the Shrine game, the band was a great inspiration to the team.

The football stunts presented by the band in connection with the girls' marching units under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham drew much enthusiastic acclaim from the football fans. An especially notable stunt was presented at the N. C.-Gonzaga afternoon game on November 8, when the Color Girls, in the form of a gigantic football, were kicked down the field by the band to make the winning touchdown through the goal post composed of Red Feathers.

Band

The North Central band ended the fall semester with a pay convocation including a fine combination of both classical and popular music. Among the selections presented were "Orpheus in the Underworld" by Offenbach, "Scenes from the Sierras" by Bennett, and Sousa's "Dauntless Battalion." Dave Hawes and Dick Hubbard were featured soloists in a piccolo and bassoon duet, and Charles Lindberg was featured in a xylophone solo.

The concert band ended the first semester by playing for the Town Meeting at Lewis and Clark on January 23. The forty-sixth formal band concert and student convocation was presented April 25 and 26.

Other activities for the spring semester included an appearance at the Washington State Apple Blossom Festival at Wenatchee, marching in the Memorial and Amistice Day parades, and a concert given at Havermale by a 50-piece band composed mostly by Havermale graduates.

Doll

With all the festivity and sparkle of a Broadway production, the students of North Central, under the direction of Miss Elsa Pinkham and Miss Betty Gazette, presented the ninth biennial Doll Shop.

Dolls representing nations, animals, nursery rhymes, and many other characters worked together for months to make the show a great success.

Many people that never appeared in the show, spent hours of work to make the production possible. George Theodorsen and his crew set the stage and made the extra props that were necessary; the art class, under the direction of Miss Ethel Ashley and Miss Caroline Busch, painted the setting and designed the tickets; Miss Agnes McHugh with the assistance of the sixth period sewing class designed and made the costumes; and Charles Chandler had charge of ticket sales.

Shop

Barbara May portrayed the French war bride of Earl Davis, and Lou Endsley was constantly being pursued by Grace Mudge, his slightly overweight admirer. George Ferrer was the other veteran.

Three sisters visited the shop to purchase a doll—Dorothy Haight, the eldest, and Pat Smith and Donna Evans, the younger ones.

The traditional three penguins provided merriment throughout the program. "The Pink Doll," written by C. Olin Rice, has been used in every Doll Shop and is always an outstanding dance.

Mollie Pierce was student chairman with Dolores Straub and Georgene Guter as assistants. Mary Ellen and Mary Elizabeth Mann were in charge of the dances and Bernice Horch was publicity chairman.

Mar

Surrounding Dorothy Powell, who sang the lead role of Maritana, are: Ann Clarke, Barbara May, Virginia Evans, Mollie Pierce, and Barbara Crosby.

"Maritana," the opera composed by William Vincent Wallace, was the thirty-sixth annual operetta presented at North Central. It was presented to capacity audiences at a matinee on December 10, and at evening performances December 11 and 12, under the direction of W. Stanley Taft, music department head. "Maritana" is a romantic tale of the fusion of the aristocratic society and the gypsies of Madrid.

The story takes place in the time of King Charles II, ruler of Spain. It incorporates the brilliant Spanish bolero and other fascinating dances with scenes of dueling and an attempt at suicide.

The operetta revolves around a pretty young girl with a lovely voice whose name is Maritana. The gay King Charles wanders disguised among his people to enjoy incognito their pleasures.

Maritana

Other leading characters are Don Jose, the scheming prime-minister to King Charles; Don Caesar, a handsome son of a noble family; and Lazarillo, a young servant girl.

ques; Clair Hunt, Enrico; Lou Endsley, Marquis De Montefiori; and Dorothy Mele, Marchioness De Montefiori.

Faculty members who assisted in the production of the operetta were: Miss Elsa Pinkham, dances; Miss Agnes McHugh, costumes; Miss Grace Gorton, dramatics; Miss Ethel Ashley and Mrs. Caroline Jacobs, stage sets and scenery; George Theodorsen, stage crew; and Charles A. Chandler, tickets.

"The Squire's Bride"

"The Squire's Bride," a three act play by Viola Zee and Charlotte B. Chorpenning, was presented by the senior class in October, directed by Miss Grace Gorton.

This farce comedy involves a middle-aged squire trying to win a young bride—anyone he can get. No one would marry the squire because of his pet horse, Cloverleaf, who kept coming in the house and scaring prospective brides away.

Paced by eleven returning gridmen, the North Central aggregation furnished strong competition for the opposing teams.

After defeating the Lewis and Clark Tigers 6-0 in the second quarter of the annual Merry-Go-Round, the North Central Indians lost the championship fourth period to the Rogers' Pirates, 12-0.

The Red and Black team started off the season by dropping a close 9-6 decision to the Pirates. After a scoreless first quarter, the Pirates scored on a pass, made the conversion, and the score stood 7-0.

The Bucs added two in the third when a blocked Indian punt rolled back over the goal. In the fourth, the Warriors scored through center for the score of the game. Rogers 9, N. C. 6.

Building up a six-point lead from a Bullpup fumble, the Indian team topped a determined last-minute drive by the Zags and came out on the long end of a 12-6 victory over a rugged Boone Avenue club.

The Indians then scored in four running plays, and the Bullpups tallied on a run around end to finish the first half, In a fourth-inning race against time, the Indians staved off a final Gonzaga drive. N. C. 12, Gonzaga 6.

Fighting hard all the way, the Warriors were run over by the Lewis and Clark Tigers to the tune of 26-0 in the first battle against the powerful South Side team.

Hampered by another injury, they were at the Tigers' mercy, and the Bengals scored twice in both the first and second halves. The game ended after North Central had intercepted a last-second pass. L. C. 26, N. C. 0.

A hard-fighting Red and Black squad defeated Rogers in their second game with the Pirates, 6-0.

The only score of the game came in the third quarter when the Warriors received a kickoff and tore off large gains. A final 54-yard sprint, and the Indians were over. N. C. 6, Rogers 0.

In their second meeting, the Tigers from Lewis and Clark broke through the Red and Black defense to score three touchdowns in the last half and scored a decisive 27-7 victory.

Although the Tigers were favored by 14 points, it looked at half-time as if it would be closer to a 14-point loss. However, the Bengal offense had not yet started rolling. The fourth quarter showed another T. D. and the game ended. L. C. 27, N. C. 7.

The Indians ended the season by dropping a close 19-14 decision to the Gonzaga Bullpups in a thriller that could have gone either way. The Red and Black team raced 66 yards for the initial score, and Gonzaga, not to be outdone, scored on a long drive to tie it up, 7-7.

The "Boone Avenuers" tallied again in the third and scampered over in the final two minutes to make it 19-7, but the Indians, fighting all the way, scored on two long passes and made the extra point. Gonzaga 19, N. C. 14.

B Squad Football

The Junior Varsity ended the season in a tie for first place honors with the Rogers J. V.'s, each team winning five and losing one. It was the first time in several years that the Indian B squad had finished in the upper division.

The Jayvees lost their only game of the season to the Pirates 7-6. This was the first league game for both teams. Apparently all the Indians had to do after that was to hit their stride. They defeated Gonzaga and Lewis and Clark both times and triumphed over the Bucs in their second game.

Don Bonamy, Howard McNew, and Jake Malterner coached the team, and should be complimented on the fine job they did in their first year of Junior Varsity coaching.

The frosh team this year did not have an exceptionally good season as to wins and losses in the city frosh league; however, they did have a very good pre-season record of three wins and no losses.

The Papooses lost two games, one to Gonzaga 7-0, and one to Lewis and Clark 6-7, and tied their only game with Rogers, 0-0. The Indians were always fighting, never giving ground until the superior weight and height of the opposition ground out the yards to the goal line.

Decisive wins were scored over the Valley schools, first over C. V. 34-0, and then over W. V. 35-0. The Papooses had a return game with C. V. and beat out a hard 14-0 win over the Cubs.

Emery Watte, Nip Hagen, and Bob Barnard ably coached the frosh team this year.

State Champions

A select ten members of the team were sent to Seattle to represent North Central in the playoffs. Everyone of these players saw action in the first game with Battle Ground when the Indians piled up a decisive 43-27 win over the Tigers to go into the second round against a strong Everett squad.

The Seagulls were no match for the strong Red and Black team that day and went down to defeat, 39-49, advancing the North Central quintet into the semi-finals.

Against the tourney-favored South Kitsap five, the Tribe downed a last-minute rally to emerge on the long end of a close 43-42 win. Outfighting a strong Wildcat team, the Red and Blacksters won the 1948 state championship, 42-37.

Milestones to Victory

The Indian quintet had four strong and determined teams to down in climbing their way up the ladder to the State championship.

Indians-Battle Ground — The Indians piled up a large lead in the first half with a fast breaking offense and dead-eye shooting. In the last quarter, Coach Bob Brumblay used all his substitutes, and outclassed the Battle Ground quintet to win, 43-27.

North Central-Everett — A determined

Everett squad was downed, 49-39, in the second round of playoffs.

North Central-South Kitsap — Decidedly the underdogs, North Central emerged victorious, 43-42, over South Kitsap in the most thrilling game of the tournament.

Indians-Bremerton—Although leading at halftime, 30-15, Bremerton came back in the second half to outpoint the Indians. It was a battle all the way with the Indians the victors, 42-37, over the Wildcats.

The 1947-48 basketball season closed in a blaze of glory for the fighting Indians, who, finishing second in the City-Valley league, went on to capture the state title. North Central finished its regular season and post season games by winning seven straight tilts.

Never has a school had such a hard fighting aggregation to represent them at the state tournament at Seattle as did North Central this year. Every student of the Red and Black will remember always the thrill experienced when the Indians downed the Bremerton Wildcats, 42-37, in the finals to win the much-coveted state championship.

Ten members of the second place Indian squad were chosen by Coach Bob Brumblay to travel to the tournament. They were: Captain Tom Perko, Lowry Bennett, Don Cameron, Glenn Burton, Fred Martin, Bud Weis, Don Lewis, Bill Wilkinson, Tracy Walters, Ken Benshoof, and team manager Charlie Carman.

B Squad Basketball

The junior varsity hoop quintet did not have the best team in the league this season; but they did have some of the best material.

Lucas Takes One Off the Board.

The Jayvees were up against some stiff competition in the City-Valley B squad league.

Coached by John Norby, the B squad had a smooth-working team which was all too often hampered by sickness and injury. Playing for the first time on the big armory maplecourts may have added to the tension of the players who were not used to such courts; but the Indians battled on. The B squad ended the season in fourth place, having four wins and six losses.

Regular starters were: Burt Lucas, Chuck Chandler, Dick Edwards, and Gene Lister. They were ably backed by substitutes: Bob Ytreeide, Jim Thomas, John Edwards, Bill Klise, Jack Lyons, and Merlyn Anderberg.

Frosh Basketball

The freshman basketball team which won 17 of the 20 games played, is indeed a credit to North Central. The boys, coached by Nip Hagen, tied for first place in the city frosh league, winning five and losing one. This loss to Gonzaga put the Bullpups in a tie with the Indians, who then triumphed over the Boone Avenuers in a return encounter.

The starting five usually consisted of Keith Darling, Rod Walker, Creighton Darling, Virgil Duchow, Bill McKay, Dick Stacey, and Don Flemming. High scorers for the season were Rod Walker, Virgil Duchow, and Keith Darling.

This year the team was very small in stature but big in fight. Three of the starting five were only 5' 5" tall; but what they lacked in height was made up in scrappiness.

Varsity Baseball

Fielding an excellent defensive and hard-hitting aggregation, Coach Don Bonamy's Indian nine are out this spring to down all opposition and vie for top honors in the city baseball league.

The Indians' starting lineup is usually composed of Bob Kuehl on the initial sack; Ken Benshoof at second; Glenn Burton at third; and Don Cameron, shortstop. Starters

The Indians opened their season April 22, when they played the Gonzaga Bullpups on their home grounds.

Indian Track

The Red and Black cindermen have a very good chance of copping the city title this spring, being backed by nine returning lettermen from last year's championship team.

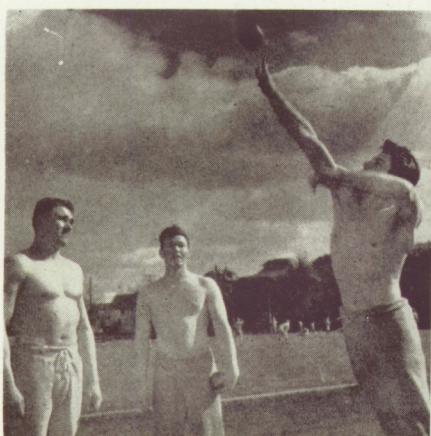

Coached by Guy O. Barnes, veteran Indian track mentor, the squad has a very bright outlook on a successful campaign. The Indians traveled to Pullman, April 10, for the annual high school pre-season invitational meet where they finished in third place. North Central did not enter participants in four events because of the illness of several tracksters. As a result, the Indians were lacking eight points of first-place honors.

The cindermen met and defeated the Gonzaga track squad in the opening meet of the city league, 81-23. The Redmen took all three places in the pole-vault, shot-put, high jump, and the 100-yard dash.

Dick Collins led the Tribe to victory scoring 13 points closely followed by Speed Merchant Wally Tesch with 11¼.

The squad was hampered by the loss of Kenny Nelson, track team captain and star miler for the Red and Black. Kenny suffered an injured leg in pre-season practice and was out for the whole season.

The Indian golf team, coached by Walter C. Hawes and headed by two returning lettermen to this year's squad, became stronger and more experienced as the season progressed.

Composed of Captain Carl Funseth, Jim Norton, Dale Brunette, Jim Tefft, Frank Wells, and Duane Brunette, the team rapidly approached championship caliber and gave tough competition to all of the city league entrants.

The Redskins dropped their first tilt to a strong Lewis and Clark squad but bounced back the next week by defeating a good Hayden Lake sextet.

The tennis team, backed by four returning lettermen, has a strong chance of winning the city league title this year. Rogers, the defending champions, will be the strongest competitors for honors and are favored to down the Indians.

The league this year consists of double round robin matches; that is, each team will play the other teams two times. North Central played Gonzaga in the opening match at Mission Park, May 10.

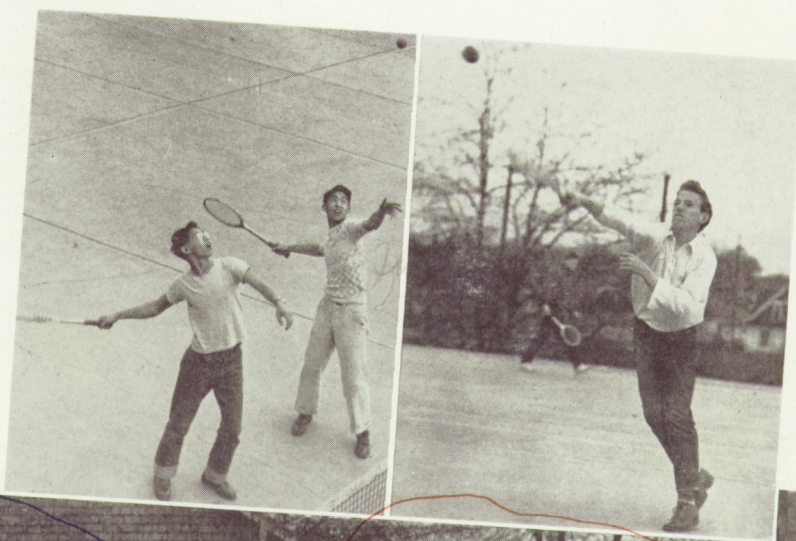

Tennis

The four returning lettermen this year are Lyle Emch, Jim Lee, John Lee, and Rich Munroe, backed by Bob Fasig, Roy Holien, and Jim Thomas.

Intramural Sports

The Intramural sports program, headed by Warren J. Riopelle, has been of major importance this year at North Central.

The program featured flag football during the fall season and basketball and softball in the spring. Several minor activities such as wrestling, tumbling, swimming, horseshoes, and handball were included under the Sports For All program. Awards were presented to the winners in each sport.

Winning the football title was Lowell C. Bradford's home room, while basketball honors were won by the sophomore class. Intramural sports letters were presented to the members of the winning teams with engraved plaques presented to the home room winners.

One Up

Two golfers, strangers to each other, met while playing on the golf links.

"See the girl over there wearing slacks?" said one. "Imagine her parents allowing her to appear in clothes like that. Just copying men's clothes."

"That, sir, is my daughter," said the second golfer. "Oh, pardon me, I'm sorry. I didn't know you were her father."

"I'm not, I'm her mother."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Diane Springer: "Is your dentist careful?"
Bill Wilkinson: "I should say. He fills my teeth with great pains."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Would you call a fellow interested in electricity an electric fan?

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

JoAnn Lovejoy: "Why are the skies clearer over New York city than London?"

Lillian Flower: "That's easy. New York has skyscrapers."

A little drop of ink who had not seen his big brother for a long time asked where he was. A big drop of ink said, "I thought you knew. Your brother is in the pen finishing a long sentence."

Peach Department

Chuck Chandler: "I call my girl 'Peach.'"
Danny Blodgett: "Why? So sweet?"
Chuck: "No, she has a heart of stone."

Lament

I wish I were a kangaroo.
Despite his funny stances.
I'd have a place to put the junk.
My girl hands me at dances.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Like That

Father: "It's a good plan, my dear, to think before you speak."

Kay Hannan: "But, Dad, by the time I do that, the girls have changed the subject."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Rude Awakening

Fred Martin: "Butch paid me my dime."

Ronn Bossio: "Then pay me my nickel."

Fred: "Wait until I finish the rest of my dream."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Ahem!

Beverly Gibbons (entertaining her latest man at dinner with the family): "Sister, why didn't you put a knife and fork at Joe's place?"

Little sister: "Didn't think he needed it. You said he eats like a horse."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Good Advice

Basketball Coach (to players): "Now, boys, remember that basketball develops individuality, initiative, and leadership. Now get out on the floor and do exactly as I told you."

Like Thunder

It is reported that a young man recently stayed up all night to figure out what became of the sun when it went down. It finally dawned on him.

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Night Howl

Officer (to man pacing sidewalk at three o'clock in the morning): "What are you doing here?"

Mr. Rhodes: "I forgot my key, officer, and I'm waiting for my children to come home and let me in."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Consistent

The two brothers had been arguing for some time.

Curtis Bentley: "I ought to know. Don't I go to school, stupid?"

Ernie: "Sure, and you come home that way, too."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Shhhhhh

Landlord to lady seeking accommodations: "Have you any children?"

"No."

"Any dog, cat, or canary?"

"No."

"Piano, radio, or phonograph?"

"No, but I have a fountain pen that scratches."

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

Bankrupt

"Dear Folks:

Please send four hundred dollars at once; the school is bankrupt and each student has to pay double tuition. Kindly make the check out to me."
